Introducing World 18/0 Farmhouse Flatware from World Tableware!

Just like the variety of items often found in the kitchen drawer of our grandparent’s country home, this Farmhouse family of flatware is comprised of six different items – three spoons, two forks and a knife. While they have been treated to replicate a gently used/worn appearance, each item is really brand new. Although the pattern is different for five of the six items, each one is comprised of rugged 18/0, foodservice caliber stainless steel.

Farmhouse Flatware is sure to deliver the homespun warmth that is associated with casual, home style, or farm-to-table dining.
