

Weston Professional Advantage Vacuum Sealer

Model Number : 65-0501-W

UPC: 810671031865

The Professional Advantage Vacuum Sealer by Weston has everything you need for reliable sealing in an attractive countertop model. With a 210 watt motor, the vacuum pump delivers 23" HG vacuum strength. There is an easy to use backlit control panel, and the fan cooled motor prevents overheating for consistent sealing of bags up to 11" wide. The automatic mode on the sealer makes one touch vacuum-to-seal operation easy! There is also a marinate mode with two different marinating options, as well as a manual seal mode so that you can control the vacuum pressure for delicate jobs. This sealer also includes fifteen bonus bags to get you started.
