Who Should Serve on Nara?

Nara is best suited for low- to medium-volume operations with fewer than 500 covers per day.

Each piece in the Nara collection features a lightweight body, a perk employees love. Operations ideal for serving on Nara include:

- Asian restaurants seeking contemporary styles
- Asian-inspired menus with mainstreamed offerings found in many foodservice segments

Who Should NOT Serve on Nara?

Like all melamine, Nara has a few areas where porcelain naturally performs better. In these cases, we recommend using either a mix of porcelain and melamine or porcelain only.

- Plated entrées requiring a steak knife
- Plated entrées requiring oven or salamander finishing
- As always, melamine should not be microwaved

See the Corona Pluto collection for an excellent alternative in porcelain.
